How Information and Communication Technologies are used to Assist Learning

iPads and laptops are used throughout the school for teaching and learning. These resources compliment the Smartboard interactive whiteboards, digital cameras, Computers for Teachers (C4T) laptop computers and the school computer lab. The school is part of the wireless upgrade strategy to improve access to online service across the school environment.

Smartboard interactive whiteboards in every classroom are used every day in curriculum delivery. This includes, but is not limited to, small group and whole class use of teacher made lessons in Smart Notebook (Smartboard software), digital texts from DVDs or websites such as YouTube or Teacher tube and interactive digital programs for Literacy and Numeracy development.

Ongoing professional development is held for staff on a needs basis. Student learning in skills and curriculum is linked to ACARA Technology expectations.

The school computer lab contains a class set of desktop computers and an interactive whiteboard, and is used regularly by classes for specific computer skill lessons and projects.

Teachers use C4T laptop computers to research and prepare lessons, record student data, and for professional development purposes.

Internet based applications for student learning continue to be sourced and implemented as necessary. The school P&C actively supports technology use in the school.

Students are also utilising technology for blended 21st Century learning, connecting students to expert people and information beyond the confines of the classroom walls.

We believe that children are responsible for their learning and behaviour. We also believe that children have the right to be safe and have the right to learn. Children are encouraged to make appropriate choices to behave in a way that will allow themselves and other children to learn, teachers to teach and the school community to be safe. The Positive Behaviour for Learning program was introduced in 2010 providing clear processes and procedures for acknowledging appropriate behaviour whilst effectively dealing with inappropriate behaviours. This program was reviewed in 2016.

Strategies are in place for supported student learning to occur as needed. Individual students may also have a management plan that is personalized to their needs. The focus is on making responsible choices and getting along with others. Our school also offers a chaplaincy program providing pastoral care, family guidance and holiday programs for many students. The school's Chaplain provides an important link between home and school for families in need of assistance and support.

At the end of 2016 the school transitioned from Positive Place rewards to a negotiated system with a lead teacher as the key person. Support from the P&C has enabled purchase of resources for the program.

High turnover of staff and transitioning to new leadership and management structures in 2016 has caused some anxiety in the school community and this is reflected in changes in school opinion surveys for the 2016 school year. Improvements are anticipated in 2017 as clarity of purpose and stability of staffing is established.

Parent and community engagement

We are very proud of our school and promote a team approach where everyone works together in providing quality educational opportunities. We value and respect the differences between all members of the school community and promote strong and productive partnerships between home and school.

The school Parents' and Citizens' Association (P&C) is the main consultative body which provides services and support to the school community including tuckshop, uniform shop, Outside School Hours Care, and Mothers' and Fathers' Day stalls. P&C meetings provide a forum for discussion of educational issues as well as dealing with many matters affecting our school. The P&C holds a significant role in decision making about school policy, goal setting, annual plans (including budgeting), social activities, improvements to the grounds and provision of equipment. In this way, the members are included in the provision of quality education for the students. As needs arise, parent membership is invited for special committees set up for specific purposes. The P&C meets the third Wednesday of each month at 6.00pm in our staffroom.

Our school makes invaluable use of parents and volunteers who have a few spare hours to spend working in a variety of capacities in classrooms or across the general school. Many parents assist with class Reading, Maths, Art and sport. Parents and community members often assist with presentations to students regarding their occupation or particular interests or skills. Parents also staff school support agencies such as tuckshop and breakfast club.

All volunteers at the school are trained in expectations prior to providing support. This is carried out each year and is actively supported by the parent group in the school. Targeted training for specific purpose work is provided on a needs basis.

Annually, the school conducts an open afternoon for parents to meet new teachers and familiarise themselves with teacher expectations and class routines. Newsletters are sent home every second Wednesday using electronic media. Hard copies are provided to families on request. Classes also send out their own letters for a variety of purposes during the year. Parents and community members are welcome to attend our weekly assemblies every Monday afternoon. News, award presentations and entertainment items are regular features.

Reporting to parents occurs formally at the end of each semester with students being issued with a written report that is accompanied by a parent/teacher interview.

Our school programs cater for all students enrolled in the school. Specific purpose supports for identified students are negotiated with families on a needs basis.

Respectful relationships programs

The school has developed and implemented programs that focus on appropriate, respectful and healthy relationships. These support programs support the achievement of the school expectations to-

- Be Safe
- Be Respectful
- Be a Learner
- Be Healthy

There is a weekly focus aspect for these interactions supported by teacher developed lesson plans. Parental and external agency supports are enlisted for targeted programs. Written plans support interventions and are reported upon as part of review strategies.

All school staff undertake mandated professional development each year to maintain expectations regarding healthy, respectful relationships in the school.

School Disciplinary Absences

The following table shows the count of incidents for students recommended for each type of school disciplinary absence reported at the school.

SCHOOL DISCIPLINARY ABSENCES
Type	2014*	2015	2016
Short Suspensions – 1 to 5 days	116	67	152
Long Suspensions – 6 to 20 days	1	0	0

* Caution should be used when comparing post 2013 SDA data as amendments to EGPA disciplinary provisions and changes in methodology created time series breaks in 2014 and 2015.

From 2015, Exclusion represents principal decisions to exclude rather than recommendations for exclusion. From 2015 where a principal decided not to exclude, a small number of recommendations for exclusions have been counted as a long suspension. Exclusions, Cancellations and Long & Charge Suspensions may be upheld or set aside through an appeals process.

Environmental Footprint

Reducing the school's environmental footprint

ENVIRONMENTAL FOOTPRINT INDICATORS
Years	Electricity kWh	Water kL
2013-2014	141,917	3,663
2014-2015	170,043	2,729
2015-2016	146,240	764

The consumption data is compiled from sources including ERM, Ergon reports and utilities data entered into OneSchool by each school. The data provides an indication of the consumption trend in each of the utility categories which impact on the school's environmental footprint.

The effort of the School Environmental Management Program (SEMP) team in 2016 has been again recognised by Logan City Council who have financially supported our school.

The work of the SEMP team has included:

- Environmental leadership through Earth Keepers, Power Ranges and Eco Captain initiatives.
- Annual presentations at the Logan Eco Festival (LEAF).
- Paper, food and popper recycling.
- Worm farming, composting and gardening.
- Partnerships with Logan City Council, Wild Mountains, Toohey Forest Environmental Centre and Jacobs Well Environmental Centre.
- Science week and Earth Hour initiatives including displays, competitions and workshops.
